

Story writing competition

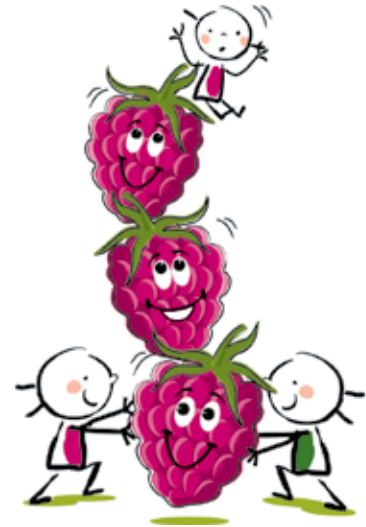

Calling little writers

Love the Tesco Goodness range? Get your kids excited about its healthy meals and snacks too, with our fun story writing competition.

Growing kids need to feed their minds as well as their bodies, which is why The Tesco Goodness for Kids range and Tesco magazine Kids' Book Club are thrilled to be running a children's writing competition all about health.

For a chance to see your child's story printed in a book, enjoy a family zookeeper day at Paradise Wildlife Park in Hertfordshire with a one-night stay at the Cheshunt Marriott, and receive a £500 donation to their school's book fund, encourage your child to give their brain a workout and get writing.

Please read the competition terms and conditions here: <http://kidsbookclub.tescomagazine.com/story-competition/terms-and-conditions.html>

How to enter

A panel of judges will award prizes to the three most original stories from each age group (2-5, 6-8 and 9-12) that best reflect healthy living or eating, and bring the three Goodness characters - Grace, Archie and Oscar - to life. Stories should be 200-300 words long.

All entries must be received by 11.55pm on 15 April 2012. For any queries or guidance, please contact 0208 782 3332 or email goodness@cyborg-group.com
